

Written Prior Notice of Cessation of Special Education and Related Services In Response to Parental Revocation of Consent

[If you need this notice in a different language or communicated in a different way or have questions about this notice, please contact _____ at _____.]

Dear _____

Date _____

On _____, you revoked consent, in writing, for the _____ to provide special education and related services to your child, _____.

This notice is to inform you that _____ will stop providing special education and related services to your child on _____ (date). Because you have revoked consent, your child is no longer entitled to any special education and related services specified in your child's individualized education program (IEP) (attached).

A parent has the unilateral authority to stop special education and related services. The district cannot refuse to cease providing special education and related services. The district cannot consider any evaluation procedures, assessments, records, or reports. The IEP team cannot consider other options. There are no other factors relevant to _____'s stopping the provision of special education and related services.

The parents of a child with a disability have protection under the procedural safeguards of special education law. Previously, the school district provided you with a copy of the Procedural Safeguards. If you would like a copy of your procedural safeguard rights in a brochure, please contact the district at the telephone number above. As of _____ (date) the _____ stops providing special education and related services, and you and your child will not have protection under the Procedural Safeguards of IDEA special education law.

Once your child's special education and related services end, the _____:

1. _____ is not required to make a free and appropriate public education (FAPE) available to your child.
2. _____ is not required to have an IEP meeting or develop an IEP for your child.
3. _____ is not required to offer your child the discipline protections under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA).
4. _____ is not required to amend your child's education records to remove any reference to your child's receipt of special education and related services.

By revoking special education and related services for your child, you are not waiving your right for your child to be evaluated in the future or for your child to receive special education and related services in the future. Any future request for evaluation will be treated as a request for an initial evaluation.

In addition to district staff, you may also contact _____ (name) at _____ (phone/email) if you have questions about special education law.

Sincerely,

, Director of Special Education Services
